New office opens in Barcelona

27 Apr, 2020 | Share

Despite challenging times, we are not slowing down! Our footprint in Spain just got a little bit bigger by adding a new office in Barcelona, Spain, where we are pleased to welcome our new team.

Although our office is currently empty due to coronavirus restrictions in Spain, our team is all set working from home, with first shipments handled with flying colours.

“We have experienced a significant growth in Spain since we opened up our first office in A Coruña 4 years ago, and we wish to build further on this momentum by opening additional offices in Spain in the years to come, with Barcelona marking the first step on this journey,” says Raimundo Oujo, Managing Director, Scan Global Logistics Spain

Our team in Barcelona comes with significant experience from verticals such as Automotive, Retail & Fashion, Chemicals and Pharma and the team is working on many new opportunities already.
