We challenged our customers and employees

31 Aug, 2016 | Share

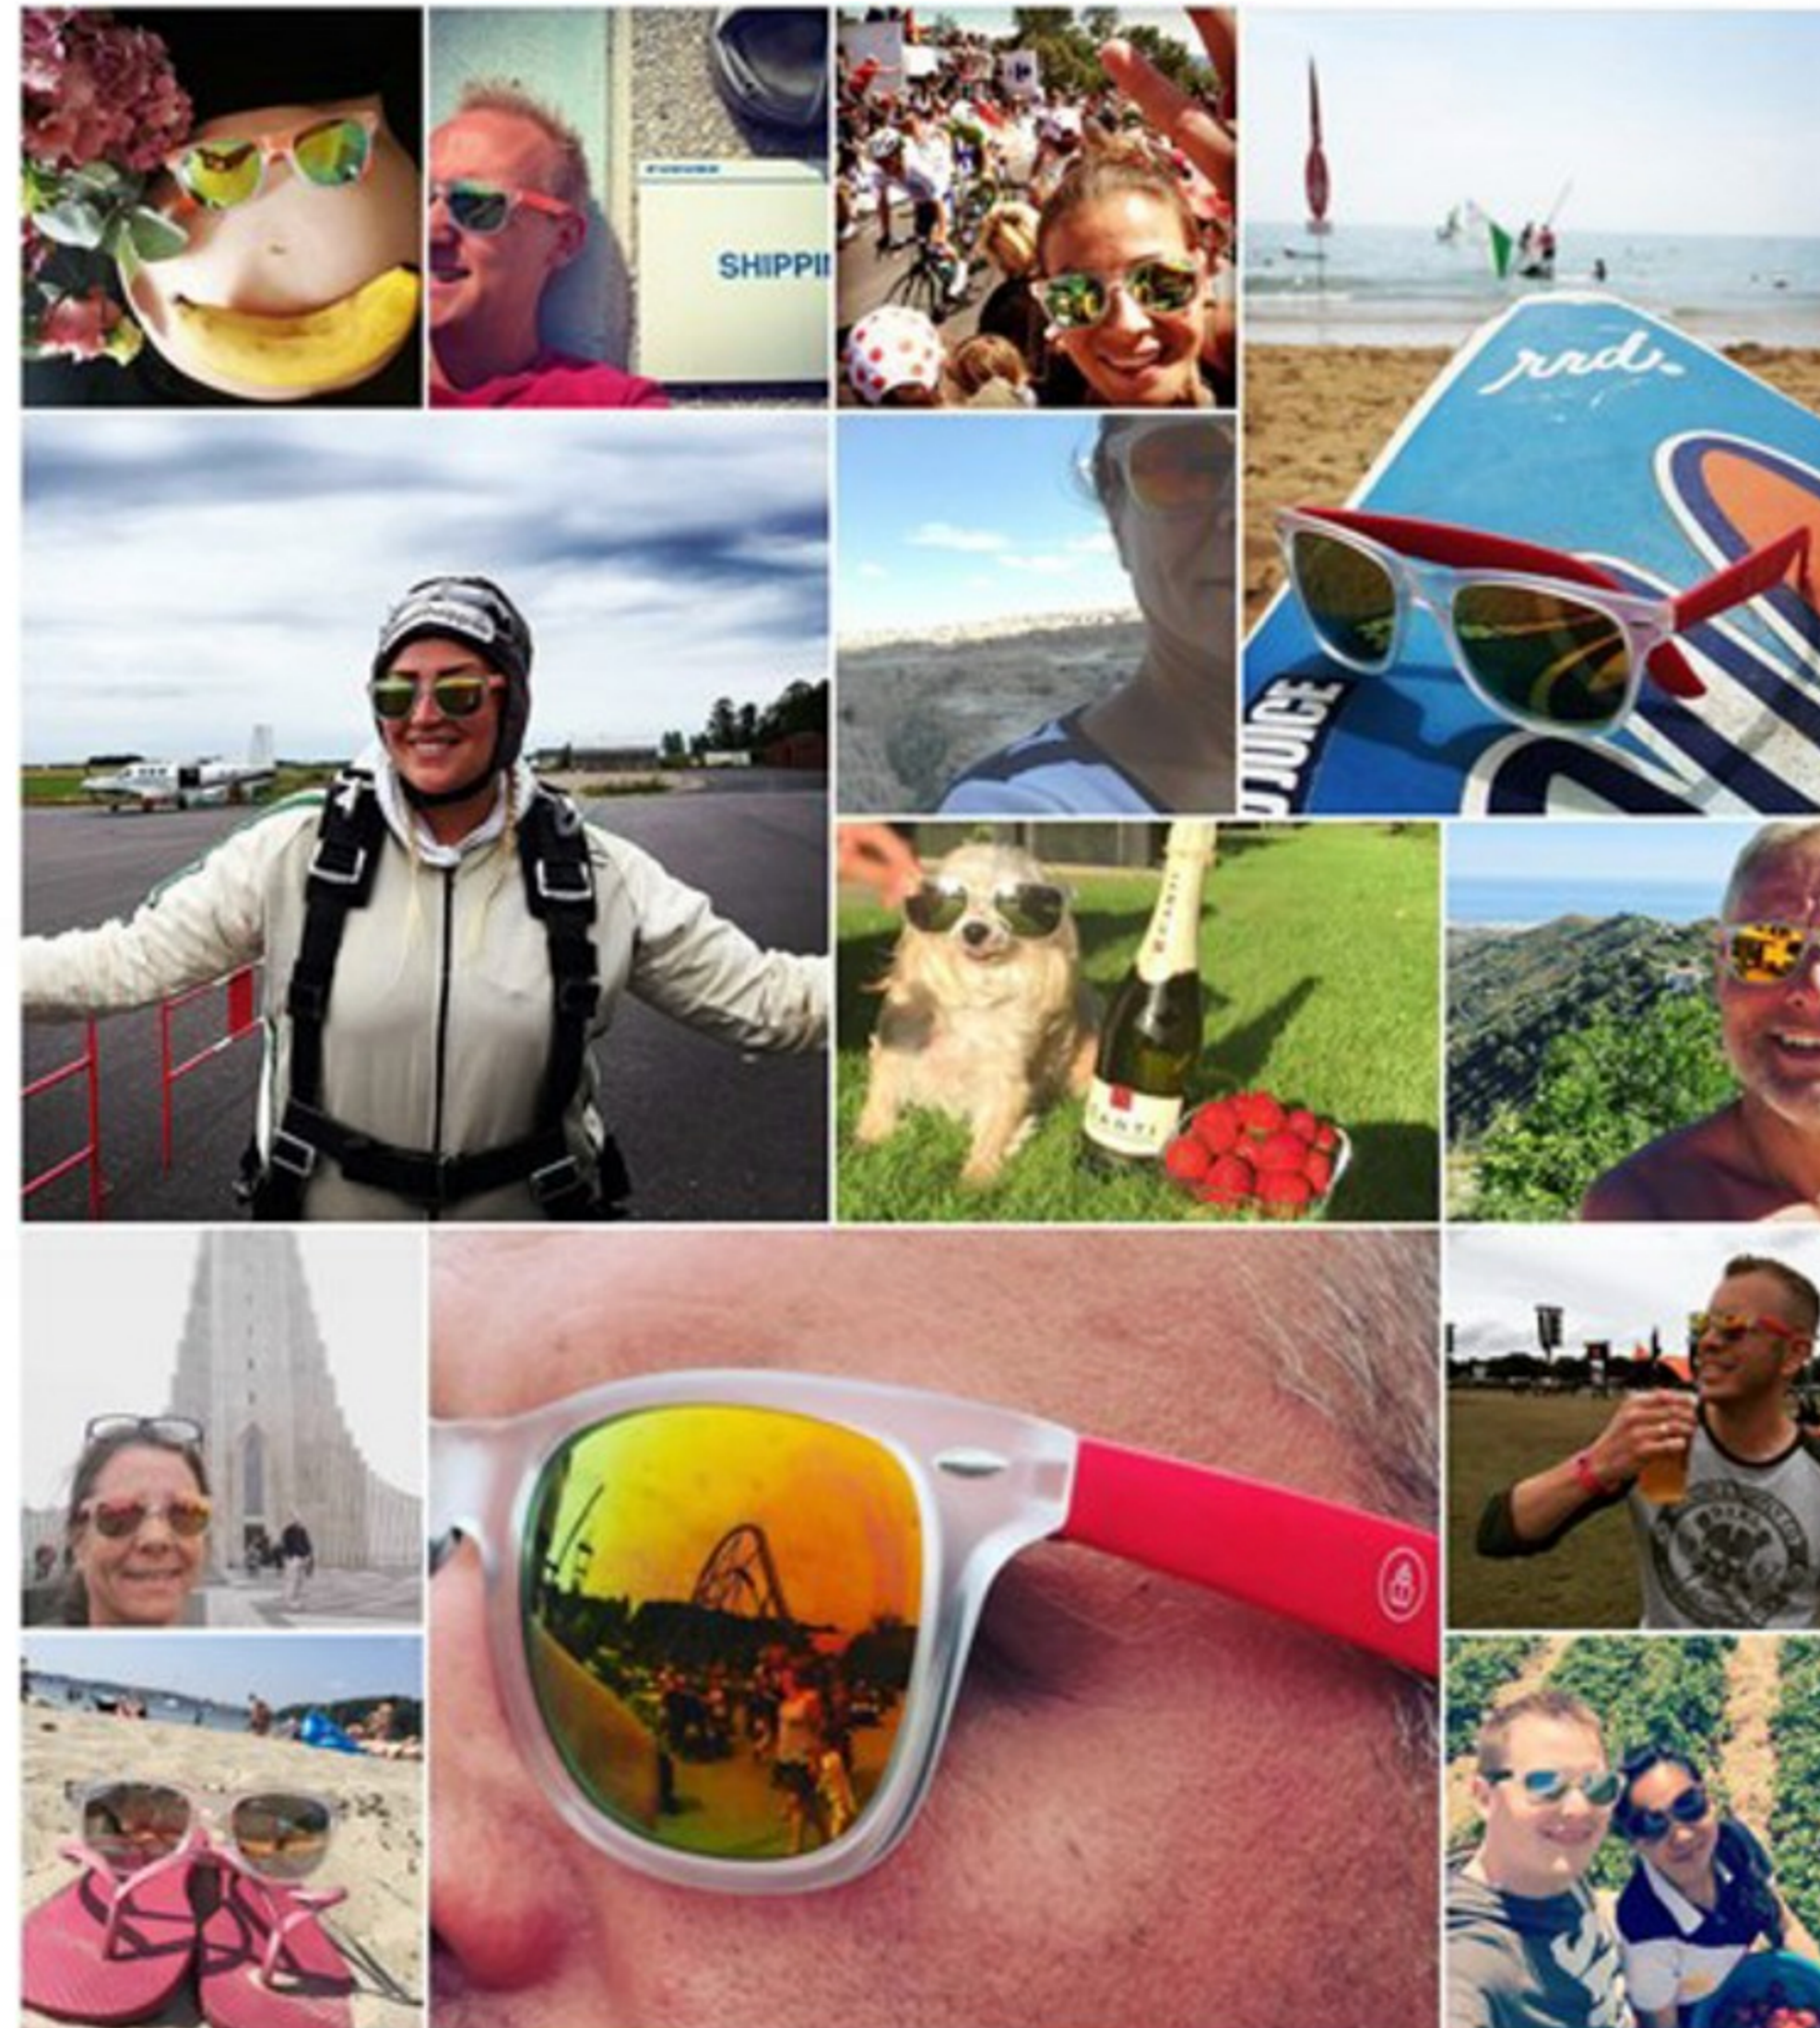

This year we at Scan Global Logistics launched a summer challenge that were to bring us across the globe. Just like we, as a company, is shipping goods to various places we wanted to know what favorite places our customer and employees had during their holidays.

In order to win a fine prize the challenge was to put a pair of Scan Global Logistics branded sunglasses on, and take a selfie. The best and most innovative pictures will be awarded. The winners will be presented here during September.

Below we are sharing some of those moments shared to us by our valued customers and employees. If you want to see more of the pictures go to Instagram and use the following hashtags:
